

Rent This Fantastic Scottish Holiday Cottage

Your chance to relax in Bramblebank Cottage is available now at some excellent introductory rates.

Situated mid-way between Glasgow and Edinburgh, Bramblebank serves as an excellent base for day trips to either city, whilst Stirling and the Trossachs can be reached in just 20 minutes.

Well appointed, Bramblebank is an ideal holiday home where a couple can relax and enjoy the country surroundings, have a relaxed breakfast in the conservatory, take a day trip to the museums and castles spread throughout Central Scotland and then spend an evening relaxing by the fire, planning the next days activities.

Scotland has some of the most breathtaking and beautiful scenery anywhere in the world.

In recent years the true value of this natural heritage has begun to be recognised with the creation of a National Park around Loch Lomond - one of the largest freshwater lochs in Scotland and now protected and safeguarded for the enjoyment of all. You can reach Loch Lomond in around 45 minutes.

However, you don't have to travel far to enjoy the countryside. Set in hill farmland, Bramblebank already has easy access to the natural world which surrounds you – the bluebells pictured were growing in the garden and for anyone who takes a little time, there are lots more opportunities to enjoy the beauty of your surroundings.

With sturdy walking boots you can walk through the farmland to the viewpoint set in the Kilsyth Hills and survey the whole Central Scotland valley or – for the more adventurous – a brisk hill climb will take you to the peak of Tomtain for an even more panoramic view.
